

CyberTech+ Your First-Choice Protection Against the Emerging Risks That Technology Companies Face Every Day

Your company has to be agile to stay ahead of the competition. With this in mind, CyberTech+ was developed to provide even greater flexibility in building the right coverage to fit your needs, providing enterprise-wide protection for your commercial activities worldwide.

Risks you face include technology errors and omissions liability, network and information security liability and communications and media liability. CyberTech+ is designed to help address the need for protection that goes well beyond a traditional general liability policy.

Three Broad Coverages

Choose One. Choose Them All.

Today's electronic age has created a fast-paced global marketplace that continually generates complex new risks. CyberTech+ consists of three coverages. Choose one. Choose them all. Build the policy you need to round out your protection and fill in gaps not covered by your general liability policy. Build protection in-synch with your needs.

Would you be prepared to face one of these scenarios on your own? With CyberTech+ and Travelers Canada we will be there to help.

Technology Errors and Omissions Liability

Market-leading Technology Errors and Omissions (E&O) Liability coverage protects against damages that you must pay because of economic loss resulting from your products or your work and caused by an error, omission or negligent act.

Consider this scenario:

You develop enterprise labour force software to integrate with a client's HR and payroll systems. You fall behind in delivering the work, resulting in missed milestones and nonfunctioning project modules. You contend that the client repeatedly changed the size and scope of the project. Ultimately, the client fires you and files a lawsuit, seeking to recover lost profits due to the disruption.

Network and Information Security Liability

Cutting-edge coverage protects against risks associated with the failure to protect electronic data containing others' private information, the inadvertent transmission of a virus and the inability of authorized users to access your website or computer or communication network.

Consider this scenario:

Your employee's company laptop is stolen from his home. The laptop contains private financial information of your customers. Your customers sue you for damages resulting from your failure to protect their private financial information.

Communications and Media Liability

Broad coverage to protect against claims or suits for damages resulting from unauthorized use of someone else's copyrighted or trademarked intellectual property, whether electronic or in print. It also covers unauthorized use of any advertising material or any slogan or title of others in the advertising of the business of others, and exposures resulting from plagiarism of a literary or artistic format, character or performance in your covered material.

Consider this scenario:

You place advertisements on your website and in your direct mailings to announce a new service offered by one of your important partners. The advertising contains material that your partner's competitor claims it owns. The competitor sues you, contending you are liable for damages caused by unauthorized use of the advertising material.

To make things easy, a general provisions form applies across all coverages and contains common terms such as defence of claims or suits, limits of coverage, deductibles and exclusions applicable to all coverages
